Date: 27/10/2025 Venue: Lecture Hall 3, SDS at 10:30am
Organized by: School of Dental Sciences, Krishna VishwaVidyapeeth (KVV), Karad
Attendees: First Year BDS, First Year MDS students, anti-ragging committee member of the institute

An Anti-Ragging Online Lecture was organized by the School of Dental Sciences, Krishna VishwaVidyapeeth (KVV), Karad, for the students of First Year BDS and First Year MDS students. The session was attended by First Year BDS and First Year MDS students, demonstrating collective support for a ragging-free academic environment.

The workshop was headed by the Dr.Shashikiran ND, Dean of the School of Dental Sciences, who addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of discipline and mutual respect within the campus. All the anti-ragging committee member of the institute were present.

The session began with a welcome extended to the dignitaries on the dais followed by introduction og the guest speaker to the audience.

The keynote address was delivered by Dr. Rahul Hegde, Member of the Dental Council of India. He elaborated on:

- The ethical and professional expectations within the field of dentistry,
- The serious consequences of ragging, and
- The legal and institutional anti-ragging measures in place for student protection.

His presentation was informative In his closing remarks, the Dean urged students to:

- Uphold discipline and dignity,
- Work diligently and enthusiastically, and
- Maintain the decorum of the institution, both on and off campus.

The students positively responded to the appeal and collectively pledged their commitment to fostering a ragging-free environment within the institution.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all dignitaries, speakers, and participants for making the session meaningful and impactful.
